FRUIT SOURCE: Allora Vineyards Estate, St. Helena

This estate grown Cabernet Sauvignon is produced in very limited quantities. It is the “king” of the Allora wine family. “Lusso” means “luxury” in Italian and it reflects the decadence with which it was made. No expense was spared in making this wine. It was aged 24 months on custom-made, new French Oak barrels. The vines that produce these grapes are specially cropped to yield only 1.5 tons per acre. This cropping technique is used to ensure that each vine grows fruit of the highest quality possible. Only 155 cases were produced.

The bottles display the extraordinary talent of well-know artist, Margaret Keane. As the signature wine of Allora Vineyards, let “Lusso” tantalize your palate as you indulge in pure luxury.
